Study Questions

Sept. 3-9, 2018

(Some questions are quoted from the Serendipity Bible)

READ John 20:24-31

EXAMINE John 20:24-31

- “Why do you think Thomas was not with the rest of the disciples on Easter night when Jesus appeared to them in the Upper Room?”
- What is Thomas really saying in verse 25?
- Why do you think Jesus waited seven days to appear to Thomas?
- “How did Jesus deal with Thomas?”
- What does Jesus do to help Thomas’ faith?
- How does Thomas respond?
- “What did Jesus mean when he said, “blessed are those who have not seen and yet have believed?”
- Why does John tell us he wrote the Gospel of John?

APPLY John 20:24-31

- What lessons have you learned from the passage to apply to your life today?
- “When you have spiritual doubts, what does that indicate?”
- “What kind of spiritual proof do you need?”
- “If you could ask God one question about your own faith, what would it be?”
- “What have you found helpful in times of doubt?”
- How can you best care for a friend who expresses his or her doubts to you about God?

PRACTICE & PRAY: John 20:24-31
