I AM

David Robinson
John 8:42-59
November 26, 2017

READ: Read John 1: 1-5

EXPLORE:

- Read John 1:1-5.
- Now read the passage again, slowly, trying to read it as if it was new to you.
- At what “time” did the Word exist?
- What does it mean the Word “was with” God?
- Who was the Word? Note the pronoun used in vs. 2.
- In vs. 3, what was created by the Word? What was not created by the Word?
- Vs. 4, what was in Him? What does it mean, “the life was in Him”?
- What is the light to us?
- Compare vs. 4-5 with John 8:12. How are they similar?
- Vs. 19, what does Jesus say about his relationship with the Father?
- What does it mean the “darkness did not comprehend it?”

Intro: Name above all names

Scripture: John 8:42-59

42-47 You would love me.

48-55 Obey my Word.

APPLY: John 1:1-5

- Try to write a paraphrase of this passage in your own words.
- Consider how Jesus has been your creator? How does continue to be your creator?
- Meditate upon this passage considering the truth that Jesus was in the beginning and is still sustaining and creating the world and your life today?
- Tell another person how Jesus has been your source of light.
- Tell another person how Jesus continues to be your source of life.
- Consider how you can seek the light and life of Jesus to illuminate one dark space that may exist in your life.
- Consider how this is a Christmas Story even without the birth narrative. How does this testify into your life?

56-59 I AM.

Taking it home.
