Study Questions

Sept 4- Sep 10, 2017

READ: Read John 6:25-40

EXPLORE: John 6:25-40, review 6:1-15

- What did they ask Jesus when he had arrived?
- In vs. 26, why does Jesus say they were looking for him??
- In vs. 27, what does Jesus say they should seek?
- Where will they find “enduring food?”
- What is the significance of the title “Son of Man”?
- What do you believe is “his seal of approval”?
- What “work” must be done to acquire the eternal bread?
- In vs. 30,31, what is odd about the question they asked of Jesus?
- In vs. 35, how does Jesus describe himself?
- In vs. 35-40, what are the promises attached to Jesus’ self-proclamation?
- Vs. 40, what is the hope of the Father, through whom is it realized, and what is the “work” required to realize our hope?

APPLY: John 6:25-40

- Why do we seek Jesus in our lives today?
- Do we still challenge Jesus to show us signs to prove himself to us?
- How can we better partake of the “Bread of Life” in our personal lives?
- How does the “Bread of Life” nourish us in our personal lives?
- Jesus came to do the will of the Father. How can we also seek to do the will of the Father as we follow Jesus?
- If believing is the sole work we must do, how can we encourage each other in the hope of eternal life in our daily lives?
- If the crowd still didn’t believe, they could not share the hope of God with others. If we do believe, how can we be about sharing our belief with those around us?

IT IS I, DON'T BE AFRAID
