READ John 19:16-27

EXAMINE John 19:16-27

- What does Pilate do in our passage? Why?
- Who takes charge of Jesus? Why do you think Jesus allows all this to happen? (See Matthew 26:53-54).
- Where do the soldiers lead Jesus?
- Describe the scene of this execution. Why do you think Jesus is “in the middle”?
- What does Pilate’s placard say?
- When the religious leaders complain about this placard, what does Pilate say to them and why?
- What are the soldiers doing while Jesus is dying? How does this fulfill prophecy?
- Who is near the cross witnessing Jesus’ death? Put yourself in the place of these three women. What are you going through?
- How does Jesus comfort his mom and one of his followers?

APPLY John 19:16-27

- What lessons have you learned from the passage to apply to your life today?
- Who have you allowed to take charge of your life?
- Where have you been led before when you let someone else lead you?
- In what ways is Jesus “in the middle” of your life?
- How have you ignored the cross of Jesus, or not paid attention to the man of sorrows much?
- What has kept you so busy that you’ve lost your focus upon Jesus and his great love for you?
- How has Jesus comforted you?

PRACTICE & PRAY: John 19:16-27

Intro: As Isaiah spoke...

Scripture—John 19:1-16
