

Dear Friends,

We are sending you a quick update from Costa Rica, this time without our normal newsletter. We hope to have the newsletter finished within the next week. First, we just want to say Thank You for the response in regard to the residency process! We reached the goal necessary for this expense and feel so blessed and grateful to you. We do not have words to express how grateful we are.

Andrea and I would also like to share with you a situation that happened this last week, and ask for strong prayer. I was involved in a car accident here in Costa Rica Wednesday of last week. To give you a bit of the history, Andrea and I have been having problems with our 1999 Toyota Corolla. For this reason, we have been exploring options for changing the vehicle for the last few months.

Long story short, I went to test drive a vehicle owned by a private seller (a friend of a friend) and was involved in the accident. We carry full insurance coverage on our own vehicle, but in this case I was not covered. We are being faced with repair debts without insurance coverage and a difficult personal and financial crisis. We know that God uses these moments and crisis to help us grow and rely on him. As a couple, we are giving it to him and moving forward as we can.

As you are our support and prayer team, we ask for you to keep us in mind and in your prayers! Thanks again for everything and know that God is working through you here in Latin America. More to come with the newsletter soon!
