

Blessed New Year of the Horse!!

February 3, 2014

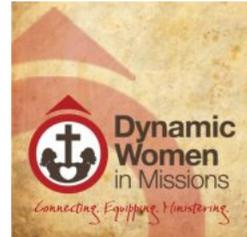

the pattern.

This is my Chinese Zodiac animal year and I have dreamed of celebrating this week IN China for ten years. So much for dreaming! I am in Wilsonville and not China! I am learning that wherever HE leads I must be content. Everything is changing at an amazing pace. Puzzle pieces are starting to drop into place and I am overwhelmed and thrilled with

Let me share a few:

(1) I returned from OMS headquarters in Greenwood, Indiana, last week where it was subzero outside, but warm with hospitality and love inside. There, after four intense days of interviewing, discussion, prayer, and great meals, I was assigned a new title: NW Representative of Dynamic Women in Missions. If the title had been any longer it wouldn't have fit on my business card!☺

Now all I have to do is live up to job requirements which include recruitment, encouragement, teaching and short-term trips (7 – 10 DAYS). Invite me and I will be MORE than ready to share all the details!

(2) The challenge keeps coming to write what God has recently put on my heart. I have shared this past year from Asia to Indiana. I am forming a support team to start this process. Alone, it is overwhelming and impossible. I must learn about social media, literary requirements, blogging, networking, etc. This is totally foreign and astounds me. I have been isolated too long! I need HIS guidance, your prayers and additional support to even begin such an adventure. Please remember me on a daily basis.

(3) After six months of searching, I believe I have found a home church. I have only attended twice, but I am encouraged and seeking HIS confirmation. Time will tell! If so, you will hear a lot more NEXT month!

(4) Women are starting to come to my place for meals and fellowship. I feel that my little house may become the haven of HIS LOVE and Sharing that I envisioned a year ago.

(5) My little 2000 Subaru and I survived the repairs and both seem to be rolling along smoothly on all available cylinders PTL! Thank you for praying!

(6) Mission ConneXion in Vancouver, Washington, was very well received, in spite of the terrible fog. I totally enjoyed hosting Roberta King from Fuller Seminary and visiting with many agency reps and friends from the past. However, I couldn't have done it without the loving support and housing from Karen Mundt with Focus. PTL!

My list could go on, but time is galloping on and we all have our own trails to ride. I close with a grateful heart for all HE is doing in my life and the role you are playing. Without your love, support and prayers, none of this would be happening. I am eternally grateful.

May this coming year of the Horse bring us all closer to HIS heart and the mission trail HE has set before us!☺

Galloping side by side in HIS SONlight,
