Greetings Dear Friends,

We hope you had and are still having a wonderful Christmas season celebrating the birth of our Dear Savior. In the midst of all the hustle and bustle, it's so nice to take a breath and realize how important this time of year is for us. May you be greatly blessed for sharing in our lives.

And with that note, are you ready for another adventure with Steve??

He's actually leaving in the morning for a 3 week trip to Uganda and S.Sudan. Kent Reisenauer, our newest member to join ITMI, will be going with him. They will be meeting with our partners there and encouraging them in the work they are doing. Some teaching, preaching, sharing in lives, and any and everything else God has for them on this trip.

So, of course, I'm asking for your prayers for them as they travel. For bags to arrive safely, plane connections made without much hassle, and to be healthy are a few of the things for the next couple days. So much sickness going around, I just ask you cover them in your prayers as they go.

It will be Kent's first time to travel to Uganda and S.Sudan, I'm sure it could be a little overwhelming for him. But when you are where God wants you to be, there's no better or safer place to be.

Thank you for going with us again, and I will keep you posted as I hear from them.

Love and thanks,

?Darlene?

Hello,

I was able to text with Steve this morning and they have arrived in Uganda...bags and all!!

Thank you for praying them there. Continued prayers would be appreciated as Steve will be speaking 1 or 2 times tomorrow morning.

I didn't get a lot of details, just that they are there and getting ready for the week. Please pray for wisdom, strength, and courage to share what God has for them this week. Always challenges with languages, food, traveling, etc...

We hope you have a blessed New Year! And know you are making a difference in lives in Uganda and S.Sudan these next few weeks!!

Thanks and love,

?Darlene?
