

Good Morning,

I talked with Steve yesterday and he's doing fine, tired...but energized by all he is seeing and doing.

He spoke at Paul & Molly's church on Sunday (pic below) and Tuesday will go visit with their girls. I'm sure he'll have pictures to share!

He met the young men (also pictured below) at the closing program of the VBS held at the church. They did not attend but were outside the church and of course Steve interacted with them. Young hearts searching and not knowing for what.

Steve will start traveling home on Tuesday late Arizona time and arrive in Phoenix on Thursday mid-day. Would you please pray for his flights, health, and safety as he finishes his time there in India?

Thanks for traveling with him again,

Darlene
