Dear Friends,

Blackberry Pie... Who would have thought that black berry pie would provide opportunities to talk about Jesus! Our friend came Wednesday afternoon. We talked a bit and then made a blackberry pie, crust and all. We talked about, many things while the pie baked – China, her work, our family, her family, etc. As we looked at the picture on our screensaver, she exclaimed over a picture of our Filipino friend, so Elaine told how she met Jesus and loves him so much that she talks to everyone about Him. Our Chinese friend wanted Elaine to play some music, so she played one of the songs we sang Friday night at the Bible study, “I Have Decided to Follow Jesus,” and gave her a copy. The pie was finally done. We each ate a piece – delicious. We gave her the rest of the pie and took her home. She leaves for China next month.

The musical group at the Chinese Bible study is growing. Elaine occasionally plays the piano and recently took her recorder and played a short introduction to “Come Thou Found of Every Blessing.” Our musician friend has come twice for Elaine to teach her how to play with chords on the keyboard. She is teaching us a few phrases in Mandarin.

We stuck our necks out and decided to have a party in our apartment – November 14th. We have invited the mini-band to an evening of Colombian food and music. Lots of logistics and cooking to be done. Menu: Colombian beans and rice, avocado, arepa corn cakes, plantain chips, meringues (hopefully we can find them), drinks (Colombiana, Postobon, Coke and water. There could be 20 people in our small apartment!

The little boys run to Victor at the Bible study for hugs. One of them runs off to play and comes back for more hugs and play! One of them calls him “Uncle.”

20th annual Pastors’ Prayer Summit There were 62 pastors and leaders who attended the prayer summit. From the beginning, there was a lot of enthusiasm as they met each other during registration. This continued into the times of prayer and fellowship. The follow-up meeting with Doug Small was well attended by pastors and people who pray for the city. More times of intercession for Miami-Dade are being planned. We will let you know.

Prayer for the City

Prayer Requests

- Pray for the Colombian night, November 14th
- Pray for protection, safety and health
