

Hebrews 13:2 (the Message)

“Be ready with a meal or a bed when it’s needed.

Why, some have extended hospitality to angels without ever knowing it!”

Cross-Cultural Experience

Anna Andrews spent a week with us in May. She needed a cross-cultural experience to meet requirements for Asbury University. She volunteered at Heartbeat of Miami in Hialeah, attended the Hispanic Pastors’ Association of Greater Miami, hung out and spoke to the youth at Doral Vineyard church, and ate a lot of foods from Latin America. Her observation was that in many places, Spanish is the language of preference! Here are some pictures of her experiences.

Other Hospitality...

- An overnight guest (son of a friend) - a delight
- An early morning arrival at MIA (can you pick up my aunt at 5 a.m.)
- A quick visit with a dear friend passing through MIA on the way to Brazil

Reinhard Bonnke Gospel Crusade in Miami July 18-19

Reinhardt Bonnke and his team will be conducting a crusade in the American Airlines Arena. This is one of the first crusades in the United States. We are anticipating many people will have a fresh encounter with Jesus during this time. Elaine has been asked to represent Doral Vineyard during the time of preparation. Volunteers will be serving from the various churches and ethnic groups in Miami-Dade.

Prayer Requests

- Pray for large crowds the nights of the Crusade.
- Pray for many to have an encounter with the Lord Jesus.
- Pray those people will find a church home quickly.
- Pray for the Annual Miami Pastors' Prayer Summit, September 15-17.
- Wisdom to help those seeking bilingual pastoral care.
- Continued health and protection. (We praise the Lord for negative reports from several tests Elaine had because of a pain in her leg).

We love you and value your friendship,

Victor & Elaine
