Dear Friends,

Nehemiah Tour July 17, 2015

We joined a group of pastors in Miami Gardens and visited 3 “hot spots” where there has been recent violence. Some 15 police officers accompanied us as we fanned out and talked with people in the community. Some were fearful and didn’t want to comment. Others talked about the “shootings” and welcomed prayer for personal needs. (Picture below of Victor, a police officer and Pastor Jorge Diaz.)

A visit with family and friends July 21-27

July 21st we flew to Charlotte and stopped by the United World Mission office. It was good to meet the people there who so faithfully serve the UWM missionaries. We ate a late lunch at the Dairy Bar in the Billy Graham Library. A refreshing moment! A stop in Montreat to visit with the Skidmores before going on to Nashville where we enjoyed family time with David and his family. (A few pictures below.)

A sad moment

We were deeply saddened yesterday when we learned that Elaine’s brother, Steve, had suffered a fall while working on his farm. He slipped into the Presence of the Lord Tuesday night. A shock to say the least. We will miss him.

Prayer Requests

- Pray for us as we lead the Pastoral Team at Doral Vineyard
- Pray for continued health and protection

May the Lord bless you!
