

A new day for the Latin America Mission!

The Latin America Mission will officially merge with United World Mission (UWM) December 31, 2013. This blending of the two missions will have 350 missionaries serving in 42 nations—Latin America, Africa, Asia and Europe. This will give opportunity for global ministry.

The LAM and UWM's values are similar—partnering and coming along side national leaders and ministries, equipping and encouraging the local church to extend the Kingdom of God.

The merge will reduce overhead costs, benefiting both missionaries and local ministries.

The name Latin America Mission will continue as a ministry of UWM.

What does this mean for us?
